

AMERICAN CRAFT COUNCIL

Show Exhibitors Honored

At the American Craft Council's Baltimore retail show, held February 25-27 at the Baltimore Convention Center, MD, Awards of Achievement were presented to Stuart Cathey of New York, NY, Lindsay Feuer of Norristown, PA, Ewa Kielczewska of Santa Fe, NM, Jack and Alice McLean of Johnsburg, IL, Lynn Whipple of Winter Park, FL, and Christian Burchard of Ashland, OR, who were among 708 exhibitors. Lewis Wexler, owner of the Wexler Gallery in Philadelphia, and jeweler and American Craft Council Fellow Betty Cooke, owner of The Store, Ltd. in Baltimore, were the invited jurors.

Selected for Awards of Achievement from 254 exhibitors at the Council's Atlanta show, at the Georgia Dome March 18-20, were Judith T. Duff of Brevard, NC, Jennifer Heller Zurick of Berea, KY, and Angelika Brennecke of Lavonia, GA. Carr McCuiston, owner of Signature Shop & Gallery in Atlanta, was the juror.

ATLANTA

JUDITH T. DUFF—Boat dish, porcelain, wood-fired, shino glaze, 4½ by 16 by 6 inches.

ANGELIKA BRENECKE—Pendant, 14k white gold, beryl, diamonds, 3¼ by 1½ inches.

JENNIFER HELLER ZURICK—Plaited basket, willow bark, 7 by 4½ by 4½, photo/Mary Rezny.

BALTIMORE

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP LEFT: LYNN WHIPPLE—Humanity Tree, collage, 48 by 96 by 3 inches, photo/Randall Smith. JACK and ALICE McLEAN—Tiles, bronze and copper construction, antique beads, each 9 by 9 by 2½ inches. CHRISTIAN BURCHARD—Canyon Walls 20 and 23, bleached madrone, sawn, formed, sandblasted, 20 by 22 by 18 inches, photo/Rob Jaffe. EWA KIELCZEWSKA—Hand-painted goat suede coat, photo/Pat Pollard. STUART CATHEY—Brooch, lapidary coral, 2½ by 2½ by 3/8 inches, photo/Robert Diamante. LINDSAY FEUER—Little Beastie No. 21, handbuilt porcelain, 6½ by 6 by 6 inches, photo/John Carlano.